Dear Parents,

Attached you will find the class options and rates for September 2023. Please look them over and let us know which class you would like for your child.

A registration fee of $150.00 and the first payment for the fall are due at time of registration. Please have both the registration fee and first payment with you to ensure your place for the fall.

The registration and physical forms will be sent out on August 1st. They need to be returned to us by August 25th. The August 1st mailing will also include important information about the first day of school, open house and parent orientation.

Below you will find a parental agreement for this year's tuition. Please sign and return with your payment.

The experienced and enthusiastic staff at Miss Tanya's joins us in looking ahead to a new school year full of excitement and learning. We are pleased that your family will be joining us as we embark on this great adventure together.
